

A DISASTROUS RUNAWAY

Near the New River Dam site on Saturday.

The Family of Mr. Anderson is Badly Demoralized and Was Brought to Phoenix the Next Day.

Last Saturday afternoon a serious runaway occurred near the dam site on New river. A Mr. Anderson, of Williamson's Valley, accompanied by his family consisting of his wife, daughter, a fourteen year old son, two smaller children and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Pemberton, was on his way from Phoenix to his home. He was driving a four-horse team. A colt got between the wheel horses and while Mr. Anderson and his son were trying to extricate at the team started suddenly. The boy was thrown to the ground and a wheel passed over his right leg breaking it. Mr. Anderson had managed to grab the bridle of one of the wheelers but was dragged off his feet and the wheels, too, passed over his right leg frightfully fracturing it and crushing the knee-cap. His left ankle was also badly crushed. While the team was running at full speed Mrs. Anderson seized her two smaller children and jumped from the rear of the wagon her mother remaining in the wagon. The daughter climbed a mesquite tree to watch the course of the team but lost her hold and fell to the ground breaking her arm.

The team continued a mile and a half and passed the guard house at the dam site. The guard succeeded in getting hold of the lines and ran the team into a bank. Mrs. Pemberton was found unhurt. The guard assisted the badly damaged family to the station two miles north of the dam where their injuries were cared for as well as possible. Constable J. F. Briggs, of Phoenix, who just then came up, rode on to Frog Tanks and sent a courier to Castle Creek to relatives of the Andersons who arrived at New River station that night. The Andersons were brought to Phoenix the next day.

He is Persistent.

Fred Steffans is pertinacious. Last Saturday he was fined in Justice Wharton's court $20 for calling Ida Bailey pet names and for using language not employed on state occasions. At the same time he was fined $5 for calling a witness on the stand a liar. These amounts were paid, but Mr. Steffans was dissatisfied. The old disturbance yesterday with Miss Bailey was renewed and resulted in Mr. Steffans' reappearance before Justice Wharton, who again fined him $20. He took an appeal.

The Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber of commerce held their regular monthly meeting last night. Very little business was before them and an adjournment was taken at an early hour. One thousand copies of the San Francisco Journal of Commerce were ordered. This is a publication devoted to Arizona to be issued in two months.
